Dear SCOT Member,

Privacy Notice: General Data Protection Regulation (GDPR) - MEMBER CONSENT REQUEST

The General Data Protection Regulation (GDPR) becomes effective on 25 May 2018. The aim of GDPR is to protect all UK & EU citizens from privacy and data breaches in an increasingly data driven world, which is vastly different from what existed when the previous Data Protection Directive was established.

You are receiving this communication from SCOT because your contact details are in its database, and the information therein includes some or all the following:

- Your name
- Your address
- Your email address
- Your telephone number

The Trustees of SCOT have assigned, one of the General Council Members, as SCOT's current Data Controller to keep the electronic database secure, and access to it is available only to the Data Controller and three officers of its General Council, namely, the President, Secretary and Treasurer – the data controlling team.

The data controlling team has used and will continue to use the database only when carrying out following:

1. Reconciliation of subscription payments
2. Sending out SCOT communications to you, including notices of SCOT events
3. Applying to Her Majesty's Revenue & Customs for Gift Aid rebate

We do not share any of your information we hold with any individual or any other organisation.

Your response to the measures we, at SCOT, have put in place to secure our database is necessary. We trust you will give us consent to keep your name and contact particulars in our computer database but if you do not agree to give consent, please let us know.

For more information or assistance please do not hesitate to contact our Secretary via email (sukisankara@hotmail.com) or read our Policy Document relating to data protection in our website (www.scot-uk.org.uk). Further information on GDPR can also be found at:
